Upper East Side $12.5 million

There are plenty of penthouses on the Upper East Side, but not many of them are more than 30 stories up. This 4,073-square-foot, full-31st-floor condo boasts four bedrooms and 4½ bathrooms along with 12-foot ceilings and "floor-to-ceiling" windows offering 360-degree river and city views. The centerpiece, literally, is the double-sided limestone fireplace in the living area, which leads into the windowed, eat-in kitchen with an adjacent breakfast room. You can also appreciate all that sky from the set-back, glass-enclosed terrace and the private roof deck. That's more than 3,000 square feet of outdoor space!
